Teen of the Month January 2005 Lauren Doucette

Lauren Doucette is January 2005's Teen of the Month. Lauren was nominated to be the Youth Commission's Teen of the month for academic excellence and performing outstanding deeds. She is a great girl and has been highly involved in basketball – a four year varsity player and maintains an excellent GPA. This year, Lauren is senior class president and highly involved with Nerds Council and Science Olympiad. She is such a positive, genuine person and kind to everyone. She's encouraging, outgoing and trustworthy with friends. In all decisions she makes, she is a true role model. Many great things await her in her future. She is highly deserving of this award.
